SUBJECT: Sino-US Talks: Meeting of January 8, 1970

REF : STATE 002761; Warsaw 50 ; WARSAW 51 ; WARSAW 031

1. Accompanied by SIMONS, I met Chicom Charge LEI Yang, accompanied by LO and LIU, at 1500 January 8. Lo and Simons interpreted in Polish. Chinese statements following in informal translation.

2. After greeting and offering tea and cigarettes, I invited Lei to speak. He said: ~~(SINO-AMERICAN RELATIONS)~~

QUOTE In connection with your statement of December 11, on instruction of the PRC Government I make the following reply.

In your statement of December 11, you said that the American Government intends (zamierza) to reduce tension in relation to China and to improve relations with China. The Chinese Government consistently pronounces itself in favor of, and tries for, peaceful coexistence with countries of different social systems on the basis of the Five Principles, and unceasingly made efforts (to achieve) peaceful solution of international disputes through negotiations. A tense situation exists between the Chinese People's Republic and the United States. The relations of the two countries could not be fundamentally improved, the Chinese-American ambassadorial-level talks taking place for more than ten years could not achieve results. For all this the responsibility does not lie at all (zupełnie nie ciąży) on the Chinese side. On the basis of the consistent position of the Chinese Government, we express agreement to the proposal of the American Government concerning holding an official meeting of representatives of the Governments of the two countries. We propose that the meeting take place January 20. At the meeting, the Chinese and English languages can be used in interpretation, as previously. We noted that you proposed that the subsequent meetings take place alternately in series at the Chinese and American Embassies. We agree to this proposal. We propose that the 135th sequential Chinese-American meeting of January 20 be held at the Chinese Embassy. We should like to hear your views on this proposal. That would be all from our side. UNQUOTE

3. I replied: QUOTE. I listened with interest to the Charge's statement on behalf of his Government. I do not wish to enter today into discussions concerning responsibility for the results or lack of results of earlier meetings. I noted the proposal of the Charge that the next formal meeting between the two sides take place on January 20, and can say that the United States agrees to this proposal. I also noted that the Charge agrees to use Chinese and English interpretation. This accords with our view and we agree to this as well. I noted that the Charge suggests that the next meeting be held in the Chinese Embassy on January 20, and I can say that the United States agrees to this, on the understanding that subsequent meetings in the series of formal meetings will take place alternately in our respective Embassies. Would the Charge like to add
